

MANISHKA SINGH

Content Creator • Writer • Social Media Creative • Video Editor

For the past four years, I've independently built and managed my own Instagram creator page, handling everything from content strategy and copywriting to design, video editing, publishing, and performance analysis. Through organic growth, creative storytelling, and collaborations with brands and creators, I've grown an engaged community of 26.8K+ followers and currently generate 310K+ monthly views. I enjoy turning ideas into content that people genuinely connect with.

2021 – Present

Built and managed an Instagram creator page focused on relatable content and community-driven content while independently handling the entire creative process.

Highlights

- Planned content, wrote captions, designed posts, edited reels, and managed the page independently.
- Created over 200+ original posts, including carousels, stories, promotional content, and short-form videos.
- Grew the page to 26.8K+ followers, with several posts reaching 100K–160K+ likes organically.
- Currently generating 310K+ monthly views through the page.
- Worked with brands and creators on paid promotions and collaborations, including Boo and Tendencist.
- Currently creating paid promotional content for Boo featuring their Gosh character.
- Promoted artists, comic creators, Spotify playlists, and online communities through story campaigns and sponsored content.
- Tracked content performance using Instagram Insights and adapted content based on audience response.
